SUPREME COURT UPHOLDS ACTION OF GOVERNOR

Norma Rathburn Fails to Win Suit for Salary as Clerk

BILL WAS VETOED

Supreme Court Reverses Lower Court, but Does Decide on Veto.

(By the Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, March 28.—Norma Rathburn, formerly a clerk in the office of the state examiner and inspector, failed today at her efforts to force Frank Carter, state auditor, to pay her salary for July, 1921. The appropriation bill providing for her salary was vetoed by Governor Robertson last May after the legislature and adjourned. In a decision handed down today, the state supreme court reversed the decision of the district court of Oklahoma county and denied a writ of mandamus Miss Rathburn had obtained from Carter in the lower court.

It was generally thought that the Rathburn case would decide whether the governor could veto a bill after the legislature had adjourned, but the court did not go into that, deciding that the state constitution made no especial provision for such conditions. It quoted the constitution as to how the governor should veto measures and set forward that the bill so vetoed cannot become a law until repassed by legislation over the executive veto, which would be a successive session.

"By this we are not holding," read the opinion, "that the governor has the right to veto a bill of this character after the legislature has adjourned but we are holding that the bill has become law as required by constitution."

The opinion was written by Chief Justice Harrison, and concurred by Justices Johnson, Pichford and Miller. Justices McNeil and Kane concurred in the conclusion and Justices Keanamer and Elting dissented.

Ada High School to Play Opening Game With Wetumka High

Wetumka high school is remaining in Ada until Wednesday afternoon to play the Ada high school baseball team on the high school field. The visitors are playing the College B game this afternoon. To the Class B champions of last year goes the credit of playing both opening game in Ada this year.

Coach Cox had his men working out again this week and he hopes to have the squad in good working order by tomorrow. Most of the men are playing their first year, and only a few of them have played together before. One of the weak points of the squad is batting, but the coach reports some improvement on this point.

Kreiger will be in the box tomorrow. All season he has been polishing up on his stuff and will be in good form tomorrow afternoon. He pitched for the school last year, and has fair success. Benny Shipman is catching this year and is showing up well. Potts at first, Driskill at second. Deavers at short and McCoy at third compose the infield. All these men are good hitters and well as fielders.

Cox's outfield is composed of a group of hard hitting men. Harrison, Nettles and Baker have worked out together enough this year to be in good shape for tomorrow's game. Benney Page is being held in reserve for the box while Gregg bids for a try out behind the bat. Waddington, D. Page, and Cotton form the substitute line for the squad.

"The strike starts April 1, and nothing can stop it." This was the statement of William Green, secretary and treasurer of the United Mine Workers on his arrival in Cleveland for a final meeting of union executives. Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois district, denied on his arrival that the Illinois district would demand that each district be allowed to fix its own wage scales. "We'll stick with the union," he said.

MUSKOGEE BOY COMMITS SUICIDE

Love Affair Thought to be Cause of Rash Act of Ticket Taker.

MUSKOGEE, March 28.—Chester Knight, 19, ticket taker at a local theatre, was found dying with a bullet hole through his heart at the place of his employment this morning. Police said he shot himself with suicidal intent over a love affair. The boy died late in a hospital without making a statement. Employees of the theatre hearing the report of a shot, rushed to the stage where they found Knight unconscious. Friends said that Knight told them, last night he intended to propose to a high school girl.

IOWA ELECTION RESULTS IN DISRUPTED COURTS

CHARLOTTE, Iowa, Mar. 28.—(Special).—Charlotte's town election ended disastrously for the women candidates for the city offices and also for the young men of the village.

Men candidates were elected to all the offices and as a result the court days of the young men of the city are over—for the present at least.

J. R. Kane was re-elected mayor over Mrs. James McDermott by a vote of 151 to 104. Mrs. Nick Steiner was defeated for city council by Thomas Keteleson, by a vote of 193 to 95.

The other women candidates for council withdrew their names before the voting began.

It was then that the mother of eligible daughters, supported by the daughters themselves let it be known that the daughter's young men friends must support the women's ticket or stop courting the young women.

The defeat of the women candidates is expected to cause considerable trouble in love affairs which have been progressing between many young couples here for the "non-courting" ban still holds. The city is split as a result.

Election officials are of the opinion that a majority of the men voted for the women candidates, and that it was the heavy woman vote that defeated Mrs. McDermott and Mrs. Steiner.

FARMERS CALLED TO MEET IN ADA NEXT SATURDAY

A meeting of the farmers of the county has been called for Saturday, April 1, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon to hear representatives of the Oklahoma Cotton Growers Association report on the first year's work by the Association and to start a campaign of education. A series of meetings will be held over the county, in order that the farmers and business men generally may become better acquainted with the principles of co-operative marketing.

J. L. Emerick of Wewoka, was in Ada, the first of the week and will be back here Saturday to be present at the meeting. N. T. McAlester, a local man, will help in the campaign of education, but his territory has not yet been assigned.

Mr. Emerick says that the Farmers Union locals are urged to send delegates to the meeting, as many as they like, and every local should have at least one delegate.

FLOOD SUFFERERS AT BURLINGTON, KAN., NEED HELP

BURLINGTON, Kan., Mar. 28.—More than 100 persons, mostly laborers and their families, are badly in need of aid as a result of damage by a cloudburst here Thursday night. Money is needed to help flood victims repair houses and replace furniture destroyed or washed away by the flood.

The people are living with neighbors and are being fed by the Red Cross.

KANSAS CITY, March 28.—Members of the Kansas City Chamber of Commerce today set about raising a fund of $50,000 to be used in relief in Burlington, Kan., where a cloudburst last Thursday caused the death of four persons and made many others homeless. Property damage estimated at $1,000,000 also resulted from the flood.

(By the Associated Press)
KANSAS CITY, March 28.—Letters of administration were on file in probate court here today for the estate of August Bulte and his wife, who with three other persons lost their lives in the Miss Miami seaplane tragedy off the Florida coast last week.

Joseph Gummertsbach of St. Louis, a brother-in-law is made administrator of Bulte's estate, estimated at between $40,000 and $50,000. The heirs are four sisters—Mrs. Elizabeth Gummertsbach, Mrs. Philomena Albrecht and Mrs. Frances Eberle, all of St. Louis and Mrs. Clara Meyers, Springfield, Mo.

A local attorney is appointed administrator of Mrs. Bulte's estate which was considerably smaller than that of her husband.

SEARCHING FOR TRAIN WRECKERS

Freight Ditched near Merrierville, Kan.; One Believed Dead.

PITTSBURG, Kan., Mar. 28.—Sheriff Milt Gould and special officers of the Kansas City Southern railroad this morning were searching for clues to identify the person or persons believed to have thrown the switch at Perryville which wrecked a freight train last night, causing death of at least three persons, and injuring another.

It was said that a man or men, stealing rides, may have been killed in the accident.

The train, a long freight, was north bound to Kansas City. It ran into an open switch at the Dean mine and the engine and 15 cars were derailed. There was every indication, officials said, that the switch had been thrown open as another train had passed over the track shortly before the accident.

NO PARTISAN POLITICS

Adheres to Policy of Non-Interference With Purely Political Matters.

CHICAGO, March 28.—Ex-President Woodrow Wilson has declined to discuss current political issues in response to an invitation today sent to Palmer D. Edmunds, post commander of a local post of the American Legion and chairman of the service men organization of the democratic organization. The former president replying to Mr. Edmunds, however, makes the declaration of his belief "that we shall very soon indeed wipe away the ugly record we have made in failing to fulfill the object for which our gallant men fought and died."

"Certainly service men above all others are able to express their devotion to the principles we believe in," says the letter to Mr. Edmunds. "It was for those very principles that they offered their lives. For my own part I believe those principles to be from so high a power that no political blindness or iniquity can defeat their triumph. I believe that triumph is immediately at hand and that we shall very soon indeed, wipe away the ugly records we made in failing to fulfill objects for our gallant comrades who fought."

PILOT OF WRECKED SEAPLANE REARED AT PARIS, TEXAS

PARIS, Tex., March 28.—Robert Moore, sole survivor of the wreck of the seaplane Miss Miami, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Moore, 260 South Main street, Paris, Tex., who was an officer in the French army during the World war, known as Lieut. Bobby Moore, was born here in 1894. He has had quite an interesting and exciting experience since he grew up and has seen considerable of the world. Before his army experience he was an automobile racing driver and was in races all over the United States and Europe, including the Grand Prix in Paris.

He enlisted in the French army in July, 1916, before the United States entered the World war, as one of the original members of the famous Lafayette Flying corps, and was brought down once or twice, but escaped capture. There were eighty-three of the members of the Lafayette corps who went over and enlisted. Out of the number he and seven others were all who were left.

When the United States entered the war the members of the Lafayette corps were still soldiers of the French army. They had enlisted for four years and remained with it. When he returned to America he had to take out naturalization papers, as the act of enlistment in the French army acted as a forfeiture of his American citizenship. He was known as an American ace in the French army and his breast was covered with numerous medals and decorations.

Loss of Mustache Worries Dallas Man More Than Money

DALLAS, Mar. 28.—Loss of a mustache which he had worn for eight years apparently worried a man living northeast of Dallas than having $26.50 stolen from him last night. Accepting a proffered automobile ride, he said he was attacked and robbed when a few miles from the city. In the struggle he was hit in the mouth, and doctors had to shave off his mustache to sew the wound. "I don't mind losing the money so much as the mustache, as I have been eight years in growing it," he told surgeons.

LEWIS TO ENTER HIS 4TH BATTLE

Leader of Union Miners is Veteran at Fighting for Underground Men.

(By the Associated Press)

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 28.—As the leader in the impending nation-wide coal strike, John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, will enter his fourth big industrial conflict. Unless present indications go awry, he will lead labor's largest strike army in the history of the United States for the strike set for April 1 threatens to call out more than 500,000 workers scattered throughout the United States.

Conflicts between employers and workers, in which Mr. Lewis has stood out prominently, are these: The 1919 soft coal strike of 395,000 miners, which was broken by the government, after which the miners got a 24-cent a ton increase in the wages, their largest single pay advance.

The first attempt, made in 1913-14, to unionize the steel industry. Mr. Lewis having charge of the field workers of the American Federation of Labor; the movement failed, according to union men because of widespread unemployment.

The great copper strike in Upper Michigan during 1913, in which Mr. Lewis, as general field agent of the American Federation of Labor, assisted in the general conduct of the strike.

Strike troubles, however, have been only a small part of Mr. Lewis' work within the organized labor movement. In 1910 at the age of thirty he was elected a representative of the Illinois union miners, and in October, 1911, he became general field agent of the American Federation of Labor, resigning in February, 1917, to become state secretary of the United Mine Workers of America. On October 25, 1917, he was elected vice-president of the United Mine Workers, and on Feb. 6, 1920 became president, having for a short time previously been the union's acting president.

Since 1916, Mr. Lewis has participated in all inter-state conferences between miners and operators in the adjustment of questions affecting the mining industry, and since 1917 he has had full charge of the administrative and field forces of the union in extending the organization into many non-union fields.

SUPREME COURT DECLARES TAX LEVY ILLEGAL

Upholds Contention of Carter in Levying State Tax for 1920.

ENJOINS COLLECTION

Says Levy Can be Made Only to Cover Estimate of Current Needs.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Mar. 28.—The supreme court today held illegal a general state tax of one and one half mills levied by the state board of equalization in 1920. Approximately $2,500,000 would have been collected under the tax.

The decision was handed down in the case of the El Reno Wholesale Grocery Co. against J. Y. Taylor, county treasurer of Canadian county. The county treasurer was enjoined from collecting the tax.

The opinion held that the tax levy should be set in effect by legislation through making of appropriations, it being the province of the state board of equalization only to provide funds to meet expenses then incurred. It held further that when sufficient funds were in the state treasury to meet expenses there should be no levy. The statement said this was the case when the levy was made.

The opinion set out that the board in setting the mill and one-half levy anticipated a deficit of $1,700,000 in state funds. This was declared illegal in that no deficit can be lawfully met in advance.

The state had on hand when the levy was made, according to the opinion, $2,256,000 in excess of the amount needed to meet state expenses. One million of this was declared to have been in cash.

The opinion held that the legislature of 1921 passed a valid bill when it empowered the supreme court to enjoin the collection of taxes which had been illegally levied.

SIMPLE LIVING AND HEALTH

A current magazine gives the story of Farmer Burns, former champion wrestler of the world, who in course of his career was thrown but seven times in 6,000 matches. He is now 60 years of age but declares he is as strong as one of half his age. He expects to live past the 100 mark and has already planned to challenge any man of 50 to meet him in a wrestling match on his hundredth birthday. He ascribes his success and perfect health to clean living. He has never used whiskey or tobacco and has been careful about his eating. Although not a church member he never uses profanity, declaring that it somehow acts like poison on the system. In his professional days if he could get his opponent to using a liberal supply of profanity he knew he had an easy task in downing him. It is really refreshing to read the stories of men of action like Burns. In times past it seemed to be expected that a man engaged in professional sports must be a rounder, otherwise he might be considered effeminate. In these latter days it is becoming recognized that clean living must be a part of the game if a man stays in it long. It is not a matter of pride how many drinks he can carry or how many hours he can carouse in the night and be able to stir next day. The athlete knows he must keep his body in condition and only temperate habits can do this. It is only good business to live clean.

The wily Turk has won another notable victory, according to press reports which say that a revision of the peace treaty has been agreed to by the powers. They grant just about everything the Turk demands as a price of settling down and Turkey gets off in very good shape. In fact, the crafty Ottoman has usually managed to outwit his conquerors and win by subtility when overcome by force and this is just another of the long string of victories to the credit of the unspeakable Turk whom the Allies swore to drive out of Europe when he joined with the Germans.

England is of course the heart of the British Empire, but it is a singular fact that it has been a long time since the country has been ruled by an Englishman. The prime minister is the real head of the government and Lloyd-George, the present incumbent of the office, is a Welshman. Before him Scotch men ruled for a long time. Asquith, Campbell-Bannerman, Balfour, Rosebery, and, if our memory is correct, Salisbury were all from Bonnie Scotland.

Press reports indicate a general rain over most of Texas where a severe drouth has prevailed for the greater part of a year. In many places it was said that the drouth was the most prolonged in many years and the situation had become really serious. However, Texas can always come back quickly and with plenty of rain from now on a good crop may be expected.

Interest in the oil fields of this county seems to be gaining from day to day. The territory north and west of Ada is to be given considerable attention, if the present reports are to be taken seriously. We believe that before frost this fall, things will be booming in our oil fields.

Time was when a Texas ranger considered his 45 and trusty Winchester all the arms he needed to handle any kind of a situation. Now a squad of rangers guarding a negro on trial at Waco is armed with a machine gun. Verily, times do change.

The recent rain gave a splendid demonstration of the difference between graveled streets and those not yet given their coat of this material. While the graveled streets were dry and hard the mud in the others was something fierce.

Here is a knotty question that is being discussed in some quarters: If J. B. A. Robertson should be convicted at Okmulgee would Gov. J. B. A. Robertson have the right to pardon him?

The Man They Cannot Forget
(El Reno American)

The following tribute to Woodrow Wilson, carried in a recent issue of Collier's Weekly, has been received with such general enthusiasm that The American reprints it for the benefit of those who have failed to read it:

One of the permanent possessions of human heart is the memory of its great enthusiasms. You many have come to disdain and even despise them, but they are never uprooted. Then you reached your highest—and you know it.

When a noble ideal kindles such enthusiasms, that ideal becomes one of those things that, without warning, at rare intervals, flares up. And you sit in the light of the flare and ponder. Why did it fall. Not because it was not beautiful—right—desirable. Was it because you were not fit for beauty, righteousness, desirability?

People are like men. They may lay aside their great hopes, but to end there are hours, when they sit with them and ponder.

Perhaps this is the explanation of the persistent, mysterious, unconscious way in which men today draw together around Woodrow Wilson. It requires explanation. Why, in Washington for months now, has the sight-seeing wagon followed his car? Why do the chattering tourists inside grow silent as they pass it? They don't peer. They lift their hats and sigh, and it sometimes takes minutes and striking sights to break the mood the fleeting of the drawn, long white face was stirred.

Why is it that on Sundays and holidays, men, women and children—most of them busy through the week, walk to his house and stand there, in groups, speak together in hushed tones as if something solemn and ennobling moved in them? Curiosity? Men chatter and gibe and jest in curiosity. These people are silent, gentle and orderly. They cheer him as he passes, and there are often choked in the cheers, and always tenderness. Why do they do it? Nothing more instinctive, more unplanned, goes on in Washington. Let it be known that he is in his seat in a theatre and the whole house will rise in homage, and it will draw a greeting that the face of no other living American receives. And that is not true of Washington alone.

Woodrow Wilson means something to the people of the United States; something profound, something they cannot forget. People think of him as the man who was behind the inspiration of their greatest moments; who stirred them to a fresh understanding of the meaning of words that had become mere patter on many tongues—"democracy," "union."

Then, too, he kindled enthusiasms. "Now," he said, "let us do, what each house has dreamed—give to each people its chance, cut down the foolish barriers of trade, limit our armaments, enter into a union of all nations pledged to co-operation and peace."

And so they seek him. He means something to them they don't quite know what. He is a living link with their noblest phase. Those who destroyed that phase are giving them nothing in its place. What does it all mean? And so they follow his carriage, gather before his house, stand in rain and snow and cold before the theatre to get even the most fleeting glimpse, something that will bid them live again as they did in those great moments.

"Say it With Jobs"
(Chickasha Express)
The American Legion in several cities adopted as its slogan for the American Legion Employment campaign: "Say it With Jobs." Nothing could "say it" more effectively than a job. That is the language which the jobless veteran will understand most readily will appreciate most heartily, says the Kansas City Journal.

He may not be able to "see" in all their beauty the monuments of the nation's debt to him. He may not be able to appreciate the fine points of the oratory which falls on ears dulled by the refusal of his application for employment.

He may not be able to "see" in all their beauty the monuments that were erected to him by grateful communities. He may not be able to "feel" all the gratitude that is contained in the effusive grasp of his hand, instead of putting in that outstretched hand the contents of a pay envelope.

But when anybody "says it with a job," that is something that speaks the universal language that does not need translation or interpretation. It is a "sign language," the "action" which speaks far louder than words.

It is not true that those who have demonstrated their appreciation of the service man's patriotism in other ways are hypocritical or insincere. Nothing is gained by sneering at memorials and monuments and the numerous other forms which the nation's sense of obligation has taken.

But when all is said and done, when the monuments rise and the eloquent speeches are pronounced and the hands are grasped, the hard fact remains that the service men will rise up and call blessed those who "say it with jobs."

LEGION TO VISIT YANK GRAVES AT HOME AND ABROAD

(By the Associated Press)
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 27.—Graves of American soldiers, sailors and marines, who died in the world war, will be visited on Memorial Day by comrades in the American Legion both at home and abroad, according to plans announced today at Legion national headquarters.

Legion posts in every community in America will take charge of Memorial Day ceremonies and decorate the graves of all veterans, it was said. While thousands of communities throughout this country are honoring the soldier dead in their midst, the distant graves in France, England, Italy and Russia will not be neglected.

It has been the custom of Legion national headquarters for the last two years to collect a fund from the 11,000 posts for this purpose. Committees are established to take charge of the funds in France and England, composed largely of legion men, acting in conjunction with similar bodies of officials and citizens of the various foreign countries. Posts in all European countries, co-operating with these committees, will see that the grave of every American who perished overseas while in the service is decorated, it was said.

In order to prevent confusion and duplication of effort in decorating graves in this country on Memorial Day, the Legion has asked all posts to organize a Central Graves Registration Bureau in every county for the purpose of properly recording graves of veterans of all wars and assigning such graves to the individual posts for proper decoration.

THE BAKING POWDER QUESTION SOLVED

Most housewives proclaim that the baking powder question was solved for them the moment they used the first spoonful of Calumet. After that no doubt remained—no hoping—no searching for a perfect leavener—no wondering if bakings would "turn out all right."

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

has solved the question because in all these thirty years it has never failed to produce wholesome and appetizing foods at an economical cost. It is as pure and sure as any baking powder ever made.

Calumet is more economical than other brands selling for less because its quality is the highest—no losses from spoiled bakings.

Use Calumet once—that's enough to prove to you that it's "best by test."

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

SPORT LEAGUE IS READY FOR START

City Baseball First Event on Spring Program, is Announcement.

Final plans for action have been completed by the Ada Athletic Association and things will be started at once, according to Ralph Wanner, manager. Plenty of sports for the youngsters of the city is the principal duty of the association, he believes, and is making preparations to keep the energy of youth supplied in good, out-door games.

First on the program of action comes a city baseball league. A twilight league, consisting of four teams, is now being considered. These teams will be given a schedule that will call for from one to two games weekly. An estimate shows that about 50 young men of the city will be able to qualify as amateur players to take part in the league. Already the Teachers College, American Legion and National Guards have spoken for a place in the league, and one place is now open. Those who are interested should see Wanner at once, as he is eager to award the fourth in the league.

Immediately after the close of school a secondary or junior league is to be formed. This will include junior members of the association. Probably eight teams will be entered in the league and each will be given a regular schedule. Teams representing boy scouts, Sunday school classes and other organizations of boys will come under this class.

Tennis courts at the city park have been worked over and are now in condition for practice work. This court, with that at the High school and College, will afford seven in the city for the use of players. Members of the association will be assigned to a court immediately upon calling Mr. Wanner at the Chamber of Commerce rooms. Those who do not take part will be given an opportunity to see some first class amateur baseball in the city league.

The girl recently was found at Wappinger Falls in the company of Nathan Podd, a pugilist. Podd was arrested. The girl testified against Rickard at his trial now in progress. Seven Old American League Men Sign Up With Semi-Pro Camp

MASSILLON, O., Mar. 28.—Seven former American League players, two of whom played in the circuit last season, have signed contracts to play with the Massillon Agathons, claimants of the national semi-professional baseball title since 1919, according to an announcement by George Texter, manager of the team.

Fred Bracht, last year with the Chicago White Sox, has signed to play in the outfield, Texter said, and Edgar Collins, who outfielded for Connie Mack last season, will do likewise.

Others who will wear the Agathons' uniform, according to Texter, are: Red Blumh, who received trials with the Cleveland Indians and Boston Red Sox, will play first base; Johnny Shovin, formerly of the St. Louis Browns, second base; Marhefka, who received a trial with Washington in 1921, shortstop, and Scott Perry, formerly of the Philadelphia Athletics and Joe Cobb, pitcher.

APRIL ATHLETIC BILL GREATEST FOR THIS SEASON

Athletics in the months of April will be of a nature to give all sport fans here one of the best bills ever presented, according to schedules already made out. The program on the athletic calendar for this month includes a county track and field meet, a district track and field meet, a college quadrangle track and field meet, 12 college baseball games, a tennis tournament, probably five or six high school baseball games, a boxing exhibition by the American Legion and several items are being listed by the Ada Athletic association.

At the same time Manager A. O. Green of the city club will be getting his team in readiness for the regular season. Work is expected to start on the fair grounds pary in a short time. Teachers College men promise to furnish most of the sport this month.

Mrs. T. Wells Tells How Cuticura Healed Blisters On Baby

"When baby was three months old she broke out in little clear blisters. After while the blisters would break and she would scratch them, causing them to become inflamed and form large, sore eruptions. They were all over her body, even in her hair. Her hair fell out and became dry and lifeless. She could hardly stand her clothing, and we could not pick her up without hurting her."

The trouble lasted about five months. I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and in two weeks could see an improvement. I continued using them and she was healed." (Signed) Mrs. Theodore Wells, R. 1, Box 47, De Ridder, La.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We Eat Too Much Meat Which Clogs Kidneys, then the Backs Hurt.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

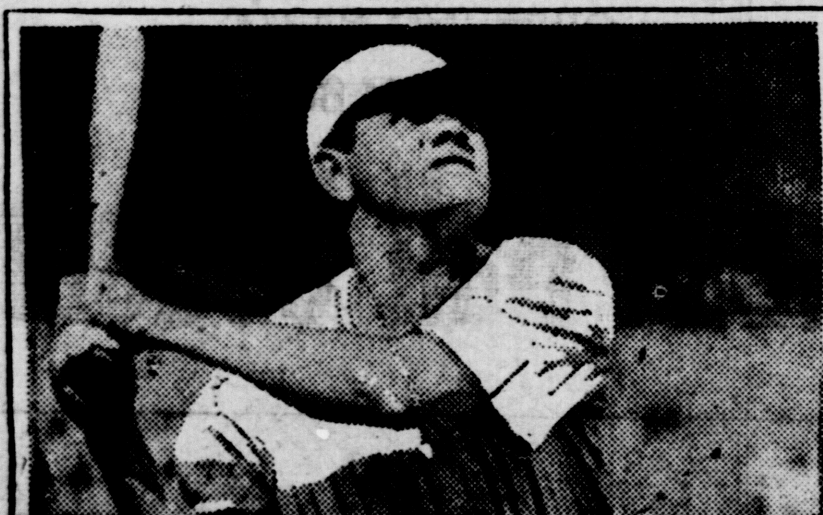

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and this moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

Let a News Want Ad get it.

NOW BABE HOPES TO DRIVE BALL 600 FEET

Babe Ruth isn't satisfied with that record home run drive of 540 feet that he made at the Polo grounds in New York last summer. The ball landed in the center field bleachers. Babe hopes to drive the ball 187 feet farther this summer, dropping it onto the elevated railroad tracks beyond the bleachers. Babe allows as how he can turn the trick if he can pick a fast fall hurled by Walt Johnson or some other speed merchant.

By Norman E. Brown
PINCH HIT FOR RUTH.
That's one claim to fame that "Hack" Miller, Cub outfielder, has. Miller is booked to play left field regularly with Bill Killefer's revamped Cubs this year. He showed last year that he is ripe for a regular berth.

In justice to Babe Ruth, we'll admit that Miller batted for the Big Bambino in the days when Babe was still rated as a pitcher and his home run bump hadn't been developed. It occurred when Miller was tried out by the Red Sox in 1918. He stuck with the Sox long enough to share in the world's series dough.

Miller was obtained from Oakland in the Coast league by the Cubs in 1920, but the deal was never completed. The Brooklyn Dodgers also had a string on Hack a couple of times, but couldn't find room for him.

Which means that if Hack comes through with flying colors this year he'll be getting sweet revenge on two or three club owners.

Pat Moran Grieves That He Must Turn Down Plucky Youth

CINCINNATI, O., Mar. 28.—It was with regret that Manager Pat Moran, of the Cincinnati National League Baseball club which is in training at Mineral Wells, Texas, passed an adverse judgment upon the ability of Frank Thornton to win a place as pitcher for the Reds.

Moran, after closely watching Thornton's work and although admiring him for his grit and his determination to break in the big league, told the boy he was too light just yet for fast company.

The case of Thornton supplies an odd chapter to baseball annals. His home is in Pittsburgh and he is of a well-to-do family. He is regarded as one of the best semi-professional pitchers of that city. Believing that he was ripe enough to travel with the big show he came to Cincinnati on the day before the Reds started for Texas. Thornton suggested that he be given a tryout with the team. He said that he would pay his fare to the training camp and all his expenses while in Mineral Wells just for the chance of exhibiting his pitching wares.

Moran said Thornton showed that he was a quick thinker and not afraid of hard work, but in his opinion there was apparent a pitching weakness that would not pass muster with the big league batsmen.

He is now completing a tour of the camps, getting acquainted with the youngsters and watching the training methods of the managers and aides. When he reached St. Petersburg he was even interested in the composition of the soil imported to make the infield ideal. The soil was shipped in from other states. Landis is making the trip because he wants to know personally the men under his jurisdiction as high mogul of baseball.

French Baseball is Revived Within Club Rooms Yanks Visited

PARIS, Mar. 28.—The French Baseball Federation, or "La Federation Francaise de Baseball", as the natives will know it, came into being this month in the club rooms of the American Legion in Paris, whose walls are covered with trophies of the great war in which Americans and French fought side by side.

There are already three all-French baseball teams in France, one in Paris, known as the Ranelagh Baseball club, another at Roubaix and a third at Tourcoing. The Ranelagh team, which has been playing for three seasons, last year competed in a contest between the half-dozen clubs formed of Americans in Paris attached to the American banks here, the Graves Registration, and other similar organizations. While the Frenchmen did not head the list at the end of the season, they were not the last on it, a noteworthy achievement when it is remembered they played against experienced American players. This year, thanks to the Federation Francaise de Baseball which has just been founded, clubs will compete for the championship of a real French League, and the honor of being the first champions will be keenly fought for.

Fort Worth oPlice Hit Three Citizens in Wild Shooting

(By The Associated Press)
FORT WORTH, Tex., March 28.—Following three shootings, in which police either killed or wounded residents in the last week, Police Commissioner Alderman announced today he was making a thorough investigation and would not tolerate promiscuous firing at fleeing prisoners, even though officers did not shoot to kill. In last night's instance where a man was mortally wounded, Alderman said it was an accident, the officer firing into the ground, and the bullet rebounded into the man's body. A charge of murder has been filed against the policeman. The latter was also suspended from duty and the case has been turned over to the authorities.

COLLEGE BALL SEASON OPENS

Wetumka High School is Here for Game With Thompson's Men.

Baseball fans were on hand at the college field this afternoon to witness the first baseball game of the season. East Central opened her season at 3 o'clock with the Wetumka high school, and baseball fans who have been waiting for weeks, reading dope and discussing players, were given their first chance to see the men in action.

Wetumka high with practically the same team this year that it had in 1921 when it won the state championship in B-class and then defeated the champions, Sapulpa, in A Class, were given a good part of the dope today. Although Coach Thompson's men have the advantage, the high school lads were expected to present a formidable team for the teachers.

Thompson was expected to use Paul Wanner, Bill Williams and one or two of his men in the box, with Burkhardt behind the bat. Judson West was held in reserve for the latter position. Hogan Montgomery on the first sack, Eddie Miller at short, Don Evans on second and Guy Tinkle on third completed the infield formation. Some changes were expected to be made in outfield, with Harrison, Culver, Norman and White probably men for the positions. Floyd was also expected to play part of the game.

Is America Trying To Corner World's Best Golf Talent?

LONDON, Mar. 28.—The persistent exodus of leading British golfers to the United States continues to receive emphasis in the local press. A special correspondent in writing on the subject states: "It would seem to be a deliberate attempt to make a corner in the world's golfing talent."

Referring to Hutchison and Barnes as two British-born players, acknowledged masters, who have migrated to the United States, he reviews the list of others which is "not only a formidable but a startling one." Apart from hundreds of renowned artisans from the Scottish nurseries, he finds the name of Wilfred Reid, of Banstead Downs; James Hepburn, of Home Park, Surbiton; Laurence Ayton, of St. Andrews and Rye; Philip Taylor, of Fulwell; J. Mason, of Montrose; R. S. Cruikshank, of Edinburgh; Ralph Smith, of West Middlesex; the late Douglas Edgar, of Newcastle; Charles Mayo, of Burhill; Tom Vardon, of Jersey; James Scott Worthington, of Sunningdale and Mid-Surrey; Robert Andrew, of Prestwick; Philip Gaudin, of Jersey; W. H. Horns, of Chertsey, and Alan Gow, of Banstead Downs.

"Human nature being what it is," he continues, "there is nothing strange of unnatural in the craftsman selling his skill in the most lucrative market. Only a pure altruistic mind could possibly dictate any other course. Unfortunately, we live in a materialistic age."

GIRL HAD PAINFUL TIMES

Mothers—Read This Letter and Statement Which Follows

Portland, Indiana.—"I was troubled with irregularity and constipation and would often have to lie down because of pains. One Sunday my aunt was visiting us and she said her girls took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got well, so mother said she guessed she would let me try it. It is doing me good and I praise it highly. You are welcome to use this letter as a testimonial." —STELLA NEWTON, R. R. 8, Portland, Indiana.

Mothers—You should carefully guard your daughter's health. Advise her of the danger which comes from standing around with cold or wet feet, from lifting heavy articles, or overworking. Do not let her overstudy.

If she complains of headache, pains in back, or lower limbs, or if you notice a slowness of thought, nervousness or irritability on the part of your daughter, give her careful attention. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent medicine for your daughter to take, as it is especially adapted to relieve just such symptoms. Remember it contains nothing that can injure and can be taken in safety.

"The Little Minister" Scores

Betty Compton, the new Paramount star, was seen to fine advantage in "The Little Minister," a splendid Paramount picture produced by Penrhyn Stanlaws, on its first presentation at the McSwain Theatre last night. This capable young star was charming as Lady Babbie and she brought to the role the gypsy-like character which it demands. All who have read the novel by James M. Barrie, or seen the play in which Maude Adams scored so decisively several years ago, will be delighted with this picture.

Miss Compton was ably supported by George Hackathorne as Gavin, the little minister and Nigel Barrie as the hateful Captain Halliwell. The entire cast indeed was beyond criticism and the settings showing the Thrums village, the manse, kirk and so on, were admirably executed. Much credit is due the producer, Penrhyn Stanlaws, for a well sustained and artistically presented screen version of this famous story.

"JUST COULDN'T KEEP MY MIND OFF PRETTY CLOTHES," SAYS GIRL PRISONER

Miss Lau, a Thomas with detective.

The future looked so hopeless as she did her routine work at the bank that Miss Laura Thomas just couldn't keep her mind off pretty clothes while she was working as a teller in the Fullerton-Southport State bank in Chicago, she told police officials. As a result she was arrested in Los Angeles to answer a charge of embezzling $950. She had only been employed at the bank a week when both she and the cash disappeared.

Farmers' Column

By Byron Norrell

The melon growers of Pontotoc county have signed up 200 acres of watermelons and 50 acres of cantaloupes for the coming season and seek to get another 100 acres of watermelons on the string. With an acreage of this kind they expect to be able to make it worth the while of buyers to be here most of the melon season and take the melons in ear lots. In this way the farmers will know just what they are getting without having to take chances on commission houses.

I don't think I have ever yet said a favorable thing about Pontotoc county but what some one came back with a tale of woe that threw my optimism into the shade. Of course there might be something to be said in favor of the country, but there was so much to be said against it that the few good points did not count. All of us become discouraged at times and our burden of life is almost too heavy to carry, but it makes life more worth while to look at the sunshine rather than the shadows.

Cultivating Fruit Trees.

By D. C. Mooring
Extension Horticulturist, A. and M. College.

It is just as essential to cultivate fruit trees as any other growing crop. Sometimes the trees are planted in the spring and left the rest of the year without any further care, so far as cultivation is concerned. An exception is where a cultivated crop is growing between the trees. While trees are young, a cultivated row crop may be grown between the trees so long as it does not compete with the trees for the same moisture and plant food. Therefore, each year as the trees grow, move the crop further away from the trees and when the trees are well into bearing cease growing a spring crop among the trees at all.

A soil that is well cultivated will, (1) Catch much more moisture, including rains and snows, (2) Conserve the moisture, (3) Keep down grass and weeds, (4) Aerate the soil, that is permit of free air circulation, which is necessary to the life and development of the roots.

The first cultivation in the spring should be four or five inches deep with whatever available tool is at hand. Be careful not to skin the trees.

In case your trees are growing in the yard, where it is not practical to use horse power in cultivation, a spade, shovel, or hoe may be used. Where a hand tool is used loosen the soil under the tree and at least a foot or two beyond the extent of the limbs.

The cultivation should begin in March or early April and continue until mid-summer under normal conditions and during the dry season the cultivation should continue until the last of the summer. After the first cultivation, which is the deep one, the other cultivations should be merely to establish a soil mulch.

DIRT BROKEN FOR MEADE MONUMENT

Memorial to Victors of Gettysburg Presented to Nation.

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Accompanied by elaborate ceremonies, ground was broken in National Grand Square just west of the capitol today for the memorial to Major General Meade, the union leader at the battle of Gettysburg.

The program for the exercises had Secretary Weeks listed as presiding officer and called for turning of first earth by President Harding, using the spade employed in breaking ground for the Lincoln and Arlington memorials. The addresses included on the program were by Governor Small of Pennsylvania, which state is presenting the memorial to the federal government and Lieut. General Nelson A. Miles, George Gordon Meade, grandson of the union leader, and George Gordon Meade, Jr., great grandson, were on the program for the memorial ceremonies.

Whitehurst Says the Fruit Crop is No Danger Now

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 28.—The fruit crop of Oklahoma should not be endangered by the drop in temperature predicted for Tuesday night and Wednesday, according to John A. Whitehurst, president of the state board of agriculture. A temperature of from 34 to 40 degrees, with unsettled weather and probable showers, was predicted by the weather bureau Monday night.

At present the fruit buds are in excellent condition. Whitehurst said, and it would require considerable frost to kill them. The buds have not yet matured sufficiently to be harmed by a slight drop in temperature, as they are well protected by the bloom, he said. Even a temperature of 20 degrees could be withstood, he said, before the buds would be endangered.

For the last two years the fruit crop of the state has been killed by frosts following a period of warm weather, after the buds had been well developed. Last year the latest frost occurred on April 5, and the year before on April 17. The latest killing frost on record during the last thirty-one years was April 30, 1907.

Supreme Court Says Carter Must Allow Clark's Expense Bill

(By the Associated Press.)

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 28.—The state supreme court held today that Frank Carter, state auditor, must pay the expenses of George F. Clark, chairman of the state board of affairs, incurred while Clark was looking after the purchase of material for state game preserves. Carter refused to pay the claim when it was presented by Clark on the ground that it was not lawfully charged against the state treasury.

Chairman Clark went to the district court of Oklahoma county with a petition for a writ of mandamus compelling Carter to pay the claim. The writ was refused and an appeal was taken to the state supreme court.

The question raised in the case was whether state auditor had any discretion in the payment of bills when properly presented to him from other departments. The court held that he does have such discretion but decided that Clark was within his rights in incurring the expenses which the auditor had decided were not properly charged.

Rub away children's colds Let them breathe in healing vapors all night

A "vapor lamp in salve form," Vicks is the DIRECT treatment for all cold troubles. Absorbed, like a liniment, and at the same time, inhaled as a vapor, the medication reaches immediately the congested air passages.

Kiddies do take cold so easily! A change of weather—or just getting the feet wet—frequently starts them sniffing. Some little ones go from one cold to another—never have a chance to build up any strength.

A mistake to keep them indoors. And so, the fear of recurring colds leads many mothers to keep their children too much indoors.

This is a mistake. Children kept too warm are most apt to take cold. There is nothing like fresh air play to harden little folk, so that they do not take cold so easily.

The mother's problem. It is best, therefore, to let children run outside in all weathers.

Of course, some colds will result. The problem has been how to treat these colds without constant internal dosing—so disturbing to their delicate stomachs.

Vicks answers this need.

Vicks VaporRub, the invention of a North Carolina druggist, offers the solution.

Applied externally, it can be used as freely and as often as desired, without any harmful effect.

And use of Vicks at night does not require shutting the windows. Just leave the bed-covers loose about the child's neck and the rising vapors will be inhaled all night.

Often averts spasmodic croup. One application of Vicks at bedtime often serves to prevent a threatened attack of spasmodic croup.

And when an attack comes on without warning—in the night, use of Vicks as directed frequently brings relief in 15 minutes.

A family standby.

For other cold troubles of children, such as sore throat, chest colds, head colds and tonsillitis, Vicks gives equally quick action.

For surface inflammations it is useful every day—cuts, burns, bruises, scalds, boils, itching skin troubles, chapped skin and chilblains.

And just as good for cold troubles of grown-ups—bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, laryngitis, pharyngitis.

Doubly a direct action. Vicks works immediately and directly in affections of the air passages.

Like a liniment, it is absorbed thru and stimulates the skin. This relieves soreness, loosens phlegm and eases difficult breathing.

Like a vapor lamp, the application over the throat and chest sends up healing vapors, which are inhaled with each breath directly into the congested, inflamed air passages.

Invented by a Southern druggist.

Some years ago, Lunsford Richardson, a druggist of Greensboro, N. C., was seeking a better way to treat cold troubles.

He found how to combine the best of nature's remedies for colds into salve form.

Camphor, Menthol, Eucalyptus, Thyme, Turpentine and other volatile ingredients are so mixed in this salve that their vapors are imprisoned until application brings contact with the natural heat of the body.

Then these ingredients are released

Little stomachs rebel against constant dosing

Anxious mothers are too apt to dose their children continually. This upsets their delicate stomachs—lays the foundation for indigestion and ill health in later life. Fresh air and exercise are the best medicines for the little ones.

In the form of vapors, given off evenly, steadily and thoroughly for hours after application, Thus, Vicks is really a vapor lamp in salve form.

Ingredients of great antiquity.

Some of Vicks ingredients have been tested by use for many generations past.

For instance, Menthol is a derivative of the Oil of Peppermint, which was produced in Egypt 3000 years ago, and is mentioned in the Icelandic medical books of the Thirteenth Century.

Several of the ingredients of Vicks—Camphor, Menthol, Eucalyptus, Thyme, Oil of Turpentine—are given credit in the United States Dispensatory, our highest authority on drugs and their actions, for the very effects that are most desired in all kinds of cold troubles.

How Vicks should be used.

For Spasmodic Croup, Children's Colds—Rub Vicks over the throat and chest until the difficult breathing is relieved, then spread on thickly and cover with a hot flannel cloth. One application at bedtime usually prevents a night attack of croup.

For Deep Chest Colds, Sore Throat, Tonsillitis, Bronchitis, Coughs—Vicks should be applied over the throat and chest—if necessary, first using hot, wet cloths to open the pores of the skin—then rubbed in well until the skin is red; spread on thickly and covered with one or two thicknesses of hot flannel cloths. If the cough is annoying, a small piece the size of a pea can be swallowed every few hours.

For Head Colds, Asthma, Catarrh, Hay Fever—Vicks should be melted in a spoon and the vapors inhaled, or a little can be applied up the nostrils and muffed up the head.

Vapors important.

Remember that half the effect of Vicks is in the inhalation of its vapors. So when applied over throat and chest leave bed-covers and night clothing loose at the neck so that these vapors can be freely inhaled.
